Hudson Welty

Submitted by Donte Newman

The Communication Department is proud to recognize Hudson Welty as our Outstanding Student of the Year. Hudson is a dynamic public speaker, a skilled debater, and a thoughtful critical thinker. His ability to express complex ideas with clarity and confidence has made him a standout both in and out of the classroom. He is set to compete as a finalist in the upcoming Lancaster Speech Tournament, where he will deliver a speech on advertising practices in the fast food industry. He consistently demonstrates a high level of excellence across all areas of his academic and co-curricular activities. Hudson is a fantastic student and is truly deserving of this award.
